The future of commodities "it's all about smart"

---

Thursday, 29 November 2018

Dear Investor,

We would like to invite you to a special event co-hosted by the Commodity Club and Saxo Bank Switzerland on the future of commodity trading.

- What will the new tech order in commodity trading be?
- What developments shape and challenge the market participants?
- Can we assume that the commodity trading market will be 'smart'?
- And if so, can anyone outsmart the market?

Our keynote speakers and esteemed panel experts will allow for a rare insight into the fascinating and fast-moving realities of the commodity trading ecosystem and put into practice the structural forces of technology.

Program:

18:30 - 19:00: Welcome & Registration

19:00 - 19:45: Keynote Speech: "Where is blockchain" by Toon Leijtens, CTO Komgo
