

---

Commodities: Nonstarter or renaissance?

---

Dear Commodity Club Members and Experts,

Oil prices near a 13-year low and gold prices rebounding over to $1'200 per ounce. Is it a historical buying opportunity for investors? What should advisors recommend their clients? Which commodities are the most attractive? What headwinds will investors face? What kind of risk/return profiles can commodities offer?

Panelists will focus in their discussions on crude oil and precious metals:

- Eugen Weinberg, Head of Commodity Research, Commerzbank
- Peter Sigg, President Commodity Club Switzerland and Senior Investment Strategist, LGT Capital Partners
- Giovanni Staunovo, Commodity Analyst, UBS CIO Wealth Management

Daniel Manser from Derivative Partners will make the moderation of the panel. You may find more details on the event under: www.investors-panel.ch/events

The event including an aperitif will take place on 2nd March 2016 at the Zunfthaus zur Zimmerleuten in Zürich (Limmatquai 40, 8001 Zürich) from 18:00. The event will be held in German.

If you like to join please register under: www.investors-panel.ch/anmeldung/

The Commodity Club can offer 20 event tickets for free (if you register via the link, please select "VIP-Gast" and plug in the code CCS16). Otherwise the event will cost CHF 50.

We are looking forward to seeing you at the event.

Best regards,

Peter Sigg
President Commodity Club

Alexander Tobler
Vice President Commodity Club