

Invitation to: GTR US 2024 New York, November 7th

Dear Commodity Club Members & Experts,

The Commodity Club is delighted to announce that we are partnering with GTR for their upcoming GTR US conference, taking place on November 7th in New York.

Hosting the leading event for the US trade, supply chain, working capital financing and risk management community, over 50 expert speakers will share first-hand perspectives and offer invaluable insights on:

- Trade and working capital financing priorities
- Intra-American supply chain growth
- Inventory management practicalities
- Basel Endgame and Regulation Q
- eBills and fintech interoperability
- AI, data and the next trade generation

As a supporting partner, we have secured free corporate tickets for non-financial corporate companies who are exporters, importers, manufacturers, distributors, traders and producers of physical goods only.
